Portland public radio station website named number one in US

by Matthew Lasar on September 3, 2013 in Innovation

The Media Audit research group has dubbed Portland, Oregon NPR affiliate KOPB-FM's www.opb.org/radio "the top radio station website in the country." The outfit's "FYI" newsletter cites a report (presumably its) that concludes that “more than 385,000 out of a total metro population of nearly 2 million have visited the public radio station’s website in the past 30 days.” That is almost 20 percent of 18+ adults in the Portland, Oregon metro region.
